Online/On-ground Workshops for Foster Parents

Pierce College Distance Learning and Washington's DSHS are partnering to offer foster parents an opportunity to build skills at no tuition cost to the participant. * Workshop activities can be applied to foster parent licensing training requirements!

Who can attend workshops:

- ▶ Licensed foster parents and others providing foster care
- ▶ Choose the style that works for you – online or on-ground
- ▶ Online participants need a computer with Internet access, standard office productivity software and skills to use them

When are the workshops:

- ▶ For a complete schedule visit the Web site noted below
 - ▶ On-ground sessions are on Saturdays and run for 6 hours.
- Each region has a schedule for each of the six topics listed below
- ▶ All seven online sessions will be offered in February, April and June and run 3 weeks (plan for a few hours online each week)

To register for the workshops:

- ▶ Identify the session of interest on the Web page and note the item number, title, dates and location
- ▶ Complete all boxes on the registration form attached below
- ▶ Mail/fax the form as directed. It must arrive at least one week before the session's date
- ▶ Contact your DSHS regional training coordinator, or Rooney Anensen at (360) 902-0278, for general questions
- ▶ Contact the Pierce Distance Learning office at distedu@pierce.ctc.edu or (253) 964-6244, for program questions
